We offer our retreats in the Ignatian tradition: that is, retreatants enter into silence at the start of their retreat and remain silent (including meals) throughout their stay, except during conferences with their spiritual director and their participation in the celebration of Eucharist. "The atmosphere of prayerful silence is the gift we give one another."

For individually directed retreatants — please answer the following questions to assist us in assigning your retreat director:

- Have you made any individually directed silent retreats before? Yes No Date of last retreat: _____
- Are you presently involved in regular spiritual direction? Yes No
- Religious affiliation: _____
- What is your present ministry or occupation? _____
- What characteristics or qualities are you looking for in a director? (Continue on back of page if more space is needed.)

- We try to honor your request for a specific director whenever possible; to assist us in assigning directors, let us know if you have a preference: _____
